A fig for your upper-ten girls, With their velvets and satus and laces, Their diamonds and rubies and pearls, And their milliner figure and faces ; They may shine at a party or ball, Emb around with half they posse But give me in place of them all, My girl with the calico dress.

She is plump as a partridge, and fair As the rose in its earliest bloom, Her teeth will with ivery compare, And ber breath with the clover perfume, Her step is as free and as light As the fawn's whom the hunters hard press, And her eye is as soft and as bright My girl with the calico dress.

Your dandles and teplings may sneer, At her simple and modest attire But the charms she permits to appear, Would set a whole iceburg on fire; She can dance, but she never allows The hugging, the squeeze and caress, She is saving all these for her spouse, My girl with the calloo dress

She is cheerful, warm-hearted and true, And kind to her father and mother, She studies how much she can do
For her sweet little sisters and brother.
If you want a compassion for life,
To comfort, sullyon and bless,
She is just the right sert for a wife, My girl with the calico dress.
